9. Schedules and Ratings

No schedules and ratings were extracted from either document. This section is reported so the question is visibly asked: nothing here means nothing was found, which is not the same as nothing existing.

10. Rate Comparison

No rate could be computed: this line of business rates against Coverage A / building limit, which is not stated on the documents supplied. The premium movement therefore cannot be attributed to rate or to exposure from these declarations alone.

11. Line-Specific Elements

The coverage-shaping elements, gathered out of the field tables above (see Section 9). A change to any of these changes what the policy DOES, not only what it costs.

12. Forms by Dimension

Every compared form (see Section 8), grouped by what it operates on rather than by the order the carrier printed it. Conditions, definitions and exclusions are different questions and a single alphabetical list answers none of them.

13. Coverage Elements Checked For

Contractual risk-transfer elements, each looked for on BOTH documents. These produce no comparison row when absent - a coverage nobody bought differs from nothing - so absence is reported here or nowhere.

Additional Insured endorsement	Present on both
Blanket Additional Insured	Present on both
Primary & non-contributory wording	Present on both

Element	Both documents	What its absence means
Waiver of subrogation	Not present on either	The carrier retains its right to recover against a party a contract may require be held harmless.
Coinsurance percentage	Not present on either	No coinsurance percentage is stated on either declaration, so no coinsurance penalty can be assessed from the documents supplied.
Mortgagee / loss payee	Not present on either	No mortgagee, loss payee or lienholder is scheduled on either term. If the building or vehicle is financed, the lender has no notice rights and no claim to loss proceeds under these documents.
Terrorism (TRIA) election	Present on both
